Versant english test score

Sorry to interrupt, but international students have hit a snag in enrolling at a university abroad. Due to the COVID-19 outbreak, test centres are now closed, and students must take an English language proficiency test online. A popular option is the Versant English Placement Test (VEPT), which assesses speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. Unlike other tests, VEPT can be taken from home using a web browser or offline software. The test consists of 81 questions and takes around 50 minutes to complete. Once completed, scores are available online within minutes, with no minimum passing score required. Each institution decides what result is acceptable for selection. With other institutions, this is the correlation between VEPT scores and similar English tests and grading scales: VEPT vs CEFR Levels 20-23 correspond to
