Through audition, Australia's most gifted performers come to BSA for Years 7-12 to complete their High School education remotely and excel in their performing arts training. Focusing equally on Academics and Elite Performing Arts Training, graduates of this incredible program include Michael Dameski, Paris Cavanagh, Cassie Bartho, Mitchell Woodcock, Robbie Kmetoni, Alex Miedzinski and many more. The Academy students are exceptional; when they step out into the world after school they are distinguishable by their maturity, professionalism and strong sense of self, all of which is attained through the structure of the Academy. Daily, each student studies 3 hours of academics through our partnership with Distance Education providers. We employ three academic supervisors, along with subject-specific tutors, to support students with their school work. After academics, students are trained in intensive dancing, singing and acting classes, driving them to expedited growth and an unmatched determination. Performing Arts classes are held each day for 3 hours. Classes are taught by Brent Street's faculty, made up of Australia's most influential and leading educators in this industry – most of which were once students of our Academy! In addition to their academics and performing arts, the Academy includes a Performance Training Program enrolment (an additional 13 hours of training per week), the opportunity to complete a Certificate IV in Dance in Years 11/12, and access to physiotherapy, mental wellness and student development services – all on-site. Each day at BSA is scheduled slightly differently, however always includes 3 hours of Academics and 3 hours of Performing Arts training. Students arrive daily at 8:15am sharp for Roll Call. For example, Monday timetable is as follows: 8:15am – Roll Call 8:30am – Academics 11:45am – Lunch 12:30pm – Performing Arts class #1 2:00pm – Performing Arts class #2 3:30pm – End of Day In addition to their school day at the Academy, students of BSA will then continue training in Brent Street's Performance Training Program on three week nights, plus Saturdays. The integration with this training program invites students to expand upon even more styles of dance and valuable hours of training. The Performance Training Program membership (valued at approx. $8,000 per year) is included in the Brent Street Academy tuition fees. Yes, we have a full time NSW accredited secondary educator who assists with their studies. In addition to this, Brent Street Academy offers sessions with tutors that specialise in key learning areas. Brent Street has a classroom learning space for BSA students, which includes personal lockers, internet access and printers. Each student will require their own stationary and electronic learning device (such as a laptop) as BSA is a BYOD (Bring Your Own Device) school. For a full list of requirements, please see the Course Prospectus. The BSA classroom also offers various break-out spaces for examinations, tests, meetings and group-specific work. The Brent Street studio complex offers ten state-of-the-art dance studios and a sun-filled courtyard for lunchtime. These iconic studios are located at Disney Studios, Sydney's entertainment hub. You never know who might be in and around Brent Street each day! Education and study is the number one priority at Brent Street Academy. Our academic supervisor ensures that all students are on track with their learning and keeps constant contact between student, parents and teachers to ensure progress in the student's academics. Only when students have completed their daily learning, they can participate in their Performing Arts classes. Along with the incredible Performing Arts training offered, our students are constantly achieving excellence in their academic results. Brent Street Academy students are required to enrol in an approved provider of Distance Education prior to their commencing at the Academy. We can provide you with a list of Distance Education providers for you to choose from. Fees for Distance Education are not included in the Brent Street Academy course fees and is payable directly to the provider. Students can receive their High School Certificate or equivalent. Students are encouraged to choose to receive an ATAR in Years 11 and 12, however this is not compulsory. ATAR requirements are discussed with the student and parents when forming their individual Learning Plan. The programs have been built to cover classes for all levels and ages. Students participate in most genres of performing arts with Brent Street's famous teaching faculty and a few special guests. Students make life-long friends in our safe, fun and nurturing environment. Name: Brent Street Academy Description: Brent Street Academy (BSA) is a Full-Time Pre-Professionals' Program for school-aged students who display exceptional talent in the performing arts combined with a commitment to completing Year 12. These students are more than just talented; they have passion, drive and a high level of engagement in their performing arts training. BSA students will participate in performance events throughout each year and are also expected to take part in eisteddfods and performances as part of the wider Brent Street performing arts programs. The Creative & Managing director Lucas Newland, and his artistic team will mentor BSA students and advise which classes should be taken to enhance the learning and development of a well-rounded performing artist. Most students will undertake classes at least 2 afternoons/evenings each week and on Saturday. Attendance at these classes is monitored and forms part of the individual timetable for BSA students. BSA will be taking enrolments for students from Years 10-12 only. All academic studies will be done through Cairns School of Distance Education using laptops, online lessons and liaising with teachers on a regular basis. MAIN PERFORMING ARTS SUBJECTS Dance across all genres (commercial & theatre jazz, tap, ballet, hip hop, contemporary, lyrical) and a strong foundation in singing, vocal technique, repertoire, acting and stage skills. These intense practical subjects are paired with theoretical, professional development and stage-craft classes which focus on career preparation & planning and building resilience as a performer. These subjects include nutrition & anatomy, performance skills, body conditioning, choreography, improvisation, expressive performance skills, ensemble & solo repertoire, partnering & musicality. Acceptance is by audition only. Brent Street Academy only takes enrolment into Years 10, 11 & 12. All applicants should have previous training in either dance, singing or acting and show potential to work on all genres School TypeCampus AnatomySchool CharacterIndependentNon-denominationalYear LevelsInternational Students (CRICOS registered school)Main Gender Co-ed Strong focus on...Creative ArtsPerforming ArtsLanguage SubjectsFrenchGermanJapaneseSpanishRepresentative SportsNo Representative Sports Available Address Building 101, 122 Lang Road, The Entertainment Quarter, MOORE PARK NSW 2021 Phone 02 8323 6666 Courses Full Time - Performing Arts (2 Years) - CUA60120 Advanced Diploma of Professional Dance (Elite Performance) Full Time - Musical Theatre (2 Years) - CUA50220 Diploma of Musical Theatre Full Time - Contemporary (2 years) - CUA60120 Advanced Diploma of Professional Dance (Elite Performance) Brent Street Academy - (Years 7 – 12) Brent Street Academy + CUA40320 Certificate IV in Dance Teaching and Management Kick off the new year at Australia's biggest dance event this Summer! Join us in either week of our Summer Camp for 5 massive days of dancing, singing and acting at our world-famous studios. You'll leave the workshop feeling inspired and pumped, ready to smash your dance goals for 2025! We welcome students from all studios across Sydney and Australia to enjoy our Summer Camp. It's so much more than just dance classes; it's an experience of making friends, a physical challenge and inspiring teachers! Throughout the intensive, teachers will be on the look out for hardworking and fierce dancers to win a scholarship to the 2025 Autumn Camp (held in April School Holidays), so be ready to break a sweat! Brent Street is a wonderful place and we are excited to share a little bit of the magic with you at the workshop! See you there! We hold 2 weeks of our Summer Camp back to back – you may purchase a ticket to either week. Week 1: 13th – 17th January 2025 (SOLD OUT)Week 2: 20th – 24th January 2025 Each day commences at 9:30am (9am arrival on Day 1) and finishes at 3:30pm (we close at 4pm). Each day contains 5x 1-hour classes with an industry-leading dance teacher/choreographer; full timetable is released on Day 1 of each week. Teachers may differ slightly from week to week due to their availabilities and we are unable to confirm this until the workshop commences. We always ensure that most choreographers teach across both weeks! This program is suitable for 7 – 18-year-old students of intermediate to advanced level. Of course, if you're outside of the age range but ready to give it a go, you're more than welcome! We encourage attendees to wear what they feel comfortable to dance in. Activewear or the Brent Street merchandise (can be purchased at reception) is a great place to start! Due to the teachers' demanding schedule, staff and styles are subject to change at any time. If we do have to replace a staff member, we will let you know and offer an awesome replacement! It's best to bring all of your shoes/clothes each day, in case there is a last minute change. We encourage students to prepare lunch, including snacks and water to get you through the day. The workshop is physically demanding so it's vital that you fuel your body with nutritious foods and plenty of water. The Entertainment Quarter, in which we are located, offers a variety of food and beverage vendors, however please be aware that only ages 12+ are permitted to leave Brent Street during the lunch break. 12 years and under will be supervised in our internal quadrangle. We book and allocate the teachers based on the number of camp tickets sold. Therefore, we do not offer credits or refunds if you are no longer able to attend. If you wish, you may transfer your ticket into someone else's name and sell the ticket on yourself – just let us know so we can update our records. If you're no longer able to attend the workshop due to COVID-19 or other serious injury/illness, please supply us with your doctor's certificate and/or positive test result and we will be happy to organise a credit for a future workshop. Lucky them! We think Summer Camp makes the PERFECT Christmas present. To download and print our gift voucher, click here (PDF download). You can then print it and fill it out with the details! Please note, this downloadable voucher is not a valid ticket and holds no value. Attendees are required to have a ticket purchased via the form below. In the five-part docuseries 'Dance Life', the Brent Academy students gave some jaw-dropping performances, and many signed up with dance agencies 'Dance Life' is a docuseries that tracks a select group of students as they navigate a significant year at Brent Street dance studio (Instagram/@primevideoaunz) SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA: Viewers just can't get enough of Amazon Prime Video's docuseries 'Dance Life'. For those who are not aware, 'Dance Life' is a documentary series that tracks a select group of students as they navigate a significant year at Australia's renowned Brent Street dance studio. Brent Street is Australia's Home of Performing Arts that offers a wide range of classes and programs to accommodate the unique aspirations and goals of every individual. These include classes for preschoolers, recreational classes, elite training classes, a Performing Arts High School, and three exceptional full-time courses. Brent Street Academy students are mentored by Lucas Newland and Cassie Bartho. The star cast of the docuseries included Cassie Bartho, Lucas Newland, Max Ostler, Emily Smith, Conor Bann-Murray, Archer Rose, Kim Naylor, Tiana Vassallo, Max Simmons, Arabella Meleo, and Erin Gaw. Throughout the five-part docuseries, the Brent Academy students gave some jaw-dropping performances. In the last episode of the Amazon Prime Video series, Stephen Tannos choreographed the opening act. Meanwhile, Cassie Bartho choreographed the 'Hangin On' and 'Mon Cher' performances, Mitchell Woodcock and Lauren Seymour choreographed the 'Hit the Road Jack' act, Matthew Jensen was behind the 'Cinema Italiano' performance, and Paris Cavanagh choreographed the 'Escalate' act. All the students delivered some spectacular performances during their final performance at the Brent Academy. At the end of the same episode, the fans learned about the students who stood out and managed to win the hearts of not only the viewers but of the dance agencies as well. Max Simmons, Tiana, Arabella, and Max Ostler, are the few Brent Street students who got lucky and became winners of the dance docuseries. 'Dance Life' features a bunch of students competing for top roles in the year-end graduation performance at Australia's Brent Street (Instagram/@emilymadelinesmith) What does the winner of 'Dance Life' get? At the time of writing, not much is known about the cash prize awarded to the winners of the dance show 'Dance Life'. It seems like there was no cash prize involved in the dance series that revolved around a bunch of students at Australia's Brent Street Academy. The main goal of the show was to get the students of Brent Street new opportunities and get them signed up with dance agencies that would boost their dancing careers. Where is the cast of 'Dance Life' now? Kim made her commercial dance debut at World Pride, Sydney. She was choreographed by The Squared Division. Erin is doing a business degree at university but fits gigs in and around her studies. She recently appeared on 'Australian Idol' with Max Simmons. Max Simmons signed with an agent and booked a contract with a professional Australian dance company. Max and Conor are no longer together but remain good friends. Conor auditioned for the musical 'Wicked' three days after graduation. He booked the Australian national tour. He has also performed alongside Kylie Minogue, Tones and I, Jessica Mauboy, and Meghan Trainor. Arabella signed with an agent and booked her first gig dancing in a commercial. She is auditioning for musicals, working three jobs, and still plans to see her name 'on every billboard you see and every stage you've ever heard of'. Tiana signed with an agent and is regularly booking corporate dance gigs. She is also teaching at Brent Street. Tiana and Tom are still together. Max Ostler signed with an agent and is dancing for Opera Australia at the Sydney Opera House. He is saving his money to return to Los Angeles to further his career. Archer is represented by two agents. They have hit the runway for CELINE in Paris and Australian Fashion Week. Lucas has big plans for Brent Street and is enrolling the next year of Full Time dancers. While having a chat with Emily, Samuel McKeown told her that she surprised him at the Grad. Focus Talent Management's McKeown said, "You really stood out to me. Like you surprised me. Like you were a standout, I feel like you were elevated and I felt like you were open and I felt like you stood just a little bit taller and so yeah, like I feel like you have a place in this industry." McKeown further added, "So I'll send you the agreement and then we hit the ground running." Emily is preparing for her professional dance debut. Meanwhile, Cassie is booked and busy working as a choreographer for international artists. She still teaches at Brent Street. Some of 'Dance Life' stars have signed up with different agents and agencies (Instagram/@primevideoaunz) Is 'Dance Life' renewed for Season 2? As of this moment, no details about the renewal of the show 'Dance Life' for Season 2 have been disclosed by the streaming platform. However, the fans are rooting for Season 2 of the dance docuseries and they have expressed their excitement on social media as well. One social media user wrote, "Please tell me there will be a Series 2?? And 3???" Another user chimed in, "(LOVED IT! Although I'm sure I'm not the only person wondering when season 2 will happen? A whole year of full time in 5 episodes?! I was on the edge of my seat the whole time and I'm just itching for more footage of this group!!! GREAT SERIES." A user wrote, "Wow wow wow - Season 2?" One comment read, "We have absolutely inhaled this as a family!! Season two PLEASE!" An enthusiastic fan added, "I need a season 2 plssssss !!! Omggg." A comment read, "Season 2 please & thank you ." Prime Video's new docuseries 'Dance Life' has not been renewed for Season 2 as of now (Instagram/@emilymadelinesmith) Copyright © 2024 Brent Street | Privacy Policy | Terms and Conditions Brent Street Pty.
