NEW HORROR MOVIE "HELL HOUSE" HELL HOUSE Trailer Full Movie: Five young girls taking part in a reality show called Hell House. A game in which if you lose, you die. High-concept film with amazing plot twists, and intriguing ending. First Full Time Custom Made Slasher with our production CAST: Scarlett Fandera, Mira Green, Anastasia Boldareva, Edward Petrov, Maxim Sergeev, Billy Brag, Keila, Sonya Krueger, Tatiana, Annabelle HELL HOUSE «I have just finished watching Hell House and I can't believe how spectacular it was. It seriously looked like a full-fledged movie. The actors all gave outstanding performances and the death scenes were all fairly solid. I really loved the locations and I was particularly impressed with Tatiana's death scene in the sauna and Keila's strangulation scene in the bedroom! I thank you for being patient with me and my questions. With so much money invested in the project, I was kind of wanting to stay informed with the progress of the making of Hell House. Thank you for understanding and I hope I didn't annoy you too much. Hell House is without a doubt proof positive that yours is the best production studio in our niche community. You have far surpassed your competitors in quality.» Stephen Collier Scriptwriter and customer's review PLOT A TV producer and group of his investors who're fans of classic horrors and slasher movies start reality TV show «Hell House» with five girls. The rules are simple: girls must survive in the house against the actor who plays maniac. The winner gets million dollars. But girls don't know that producer decided to increase ratings and do all murders real... All who try to stop producers from administration of show must die too... Producers created different traps and death for being the show more interesting: strangulation murders, bear trap, killing with a knife, gas attack and many others... Super Dark Times (2017) Discussion This may contain SPOILERS! Paramedic/Insanity - My Peeve: Beware the Paramedic/EMT at the end of the film!!!! This really threw me out the window.... At the end of the film we see a Paramedic/EMT 'treating' Zack... an hour or more after he'd been tore-up. We see the medic asks someone for a scissors and snips something by Zack's thigh I wonder what that could have been snipped? Loose part of a band-aid? Or did the medic sow up his sword lacerations in the field? Kevin Phillips (director)... I know you liked the shot of Zack looking at Josh in the squad car and then fading into black... but this is Paramedic insanity right at the end of an otherwise realistic film. Zack got deeply slashed with a sword on his back, his back shoulder, his inner fore arm (and maybe the top of his head) and then got skewered all the way through his thigh (which had a good chance of hitting an artery). Zack has sustained numerous life threatening wounds. He would have been rushed to the hospital, not sat up on the back of the ambulance for hours for some bandages. Never in a million years. Completely insane. Why? Was this supposed to be when the film went surreal? Or does the writers/director think the vast portion of the audience would think this was normal? Ending Allison Sequence -- What, Why, Huh? After the ending scene of Zack and Josh, the we get these scenes of Allison, Zack' girlfriend, a very minor character in the film. First shot we see Allison (was it on a swing was it?), and then a shot of a dove flying away. The dove/bird flying away usually signifies this character is now free. Sure, Allison was tied up by a rope at the end, but other than that she was quite a free character indeed. What was she being freed from? Or otherwise, what did the bird indicate? Then we see Allison in a classroom letting down her hair in a fairly sensual way, and a boy classmate behind her is intrigued. What is the point of this scene? She was mildly forward with Zack, but in the film's story this has nothing to do with the plot. I don't get it. At all. Anyone have any thoughts? ... Sorry if this has been posted/asked a million times. But when I think horror movies, this is the movie that pops into mind. The sister and I marathoned the Nighthmare movies back in the 90s when I was just a wee lad, and the first movie along with New Nightmare always stood out as visceral films made a decade apart. I loved the creepy nature of the first Nightmare, but the way New Nightmare took the "real world" approach and upended so many horror tropes all while redefining Freddy Krueger as a horror villain is real underrated in my opinion. What do the folks here think? Fans of New Nightmare or do yall feel like it doesn't fit the rest of the series? 03-21-2018, 04:19 PM ventricle Join Date: Mar 2013 Location: USA, IL Posts: 6,172 A New Nightmare is on my ToSee list. Its not a personal favourite of mine, but it's decent, and it *did* take the series back in a slightly more sinister direction. I also quite liked the redesign on the character/wardrobe too. Posts: 18 Decided tonight that one of our Halloween episodes for October is going to be a Nightmare on Elm Street retrospective. We're going to cover all the main series, New Nightmare, Freddy vs. Jason & the 2010 reboot. Will most likely end up being a two-parter. I personally can't wait to revisit even the schlocky ones. Fond memories of being a kid and marathoning the entire series with my older sister, a movie per night, and a cartoon before bed to make sure Freddy didn't come for me in MY dreams. New Nightmare was the newest Freddy movie when we finished the marathon. Glorious times, I tell ya. 03-24-2018, 02:07 AM Evil Dead Join Date: Aug 2017 Posts: 263 I like the idea that this movie came to Craven's mind because the cast and crew were having nightmares about Krueger for real. :) That's what he said anyway... « Previous Thread | Next Thread » Posting Rules You may not post new threads You may not post replies You may not post attachments You may not edit your posts HTML code is Off All times are GMT -8. The servers were eventually shut down and the game was delisted, with the team at Gun Interactive moving on to The Texas Chain Saw Massacre video game that is still going strong seven months after its release. But horror fans don't ever let anything die, and a group of them have gotten together to resurrect Friday the 13th: The Game with a modded build that will be available for free. It's titled Friday the 13th: The Game - Resurrected, and it's intended to not only bring the game (unofficially) back to life but also add brand new playable content into the mix - including skins and characters from Jason X, the 2009 remake, and even fan films. The team behind the fan-made build announced yesterday that the release date will be revealed on April 15, with Resurrected initially launching for PC. But they've noted in a series of response tweets that a console version of the mod is something they are currently considering. Here are some quotes from the developers that provide further insights: -"Everything from the base game is included; Savini Jason is included too!" -"We will be hosting our own servers!" -"It will get continuous updates post launch!" -"All content that did not make it in the official game will be in our mod!" -"You won't need base game to enjoy our mod. The download will available in our discord server!" Last Movie Watched: Leprechaun Origins (2014).
